Spirit of the Wilderness

Weekly News—May 13, 2010

Mentor Notes:

St. Augustine wrote this as a prayer:
“Oh God, you have made us for yourself,
and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in you.”

Conversations I have with people who seem to me to be the most unlikely to be interested in issues of faith or church remind me of this truth: people are hungry. They may not express the hunger in ways that seem familiar to us—they probably don't see religion or church as part of the answer to their hunger. But they long for meaning, for roots, for significance, for deep discussions, for ritual, for a sense of history, for love.

Our message as Christians offers all of this, and I believe that we as Episcopalians have a “package” for Christian truth that is remarkably fitting in this time and place.

Please pray that God will show you who are the spiritually hungry around you—those you may be able to bring to Spirit of the Wilderness on our Welcome Sunday...

Peace, +Mary Ellen
